JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

The elections which are to ensue in Pennsylvania and Ohio, to be followed by those of certain of the Western States, are the great political events of the year. In each of these two States the Democrats are hopeful and courageous, fighting under the lead of as strong names as can be found within or without the limits of their own States. When a political party is able to rally its strength to the call of such men as Packer and Pendleton it challenges victory from the opening of the canvass. Both are national men whose services would worthily fill the requirements of the widest sphere of public duty to which they might be called. Both have been named in a National Democratic Convention for the Presidency. Were their selection to be assured no two men in their own States could support with greater strength the successful administration of Gov. Hoffman, of New York. The three together would form a powerful breakwater in the great Central States against the further inroads of Radicalism.

Mr. Packer has reached his present deserved elevation by industry and perseverance, and thus offers another shining example to the young men of the country of the sure success that waits upon honest, independent, and steadily continued exertion. He is a man of large wealth, which he employs not selfishly or ostentatiously, but, like the genuine Democrat that he is, for the constant benefit of his fellow-citizens. The institution of learning he has established in his adopted State will stand as a permanent memorial to his honor. Of the largest benevolence, he dispenses his charities with a delicacy that heeds the self-respect of the beneficiary. The master and manager of vast business interests, he has shown qualities and powers which the greatest exigencies of public life could not well subject to an intenser strain. He knows, men is possessed of resources of his own, is capable of directing, and knows how to inspire others with the living principles of his own purposes. As Governor of Pennsylvania the people of that great State would repose with confidence in his tried ability and integrity, and the Democrats would accept a leader whose influence would be sure to extend far beyond the affairs of the present day. We trust they will permit no accidents or omissions to imperil the chance of securing so thoroughly acceptable a candidate for the official position to which he is so admirably adapted.

Mr. Pendleton, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, in his public career has written a record of his rare ability, his aptitude for administrative affairs, and his unflinching integrity, that is welcome enough to consider in these days of official malefeasance, corruption, and want of conscientiousness. Mr. Pendleton's personal qualities peculiarly attract men to him, and his influence over them is never wholly lost again. The Democracy of Ohio could not have presented a stronger or more popular candidate. The very assaults of partisanship rebound from his triple mail to the hurt of none but his assailants. Mr. Pendleton's view upon the public debt are simply his own, and with but slight modification are shared by many leading Republicans; so that attempts to prejudice him in the public mind by that means are futile.—No more thorough and ardent believer in the fundamental principles of Democracy ever advocated them with clearer reasoning or more moving eloquence. He is entirely devoted to the political creed he has espoused, and seeks nothing less than its supremacy as the true framework of free institutions. The people of Ohio know him to be a man of self-reliance, and to be relied upon; and it, as we confidently hope, they place him in the gubernatorial chair this fall, they will have excellent cause of self-congratulation in the future over a choice that has stamped their State politics with the impress of character and living power.—Boston Post.

THE PRINTER.

The following, from the pen of Junius Henri Browne, is true to a letter:

Printing ink begets cynicism, as dampness, rheumatism, or foul air, fever. There is no escaping it. Men in printing offices, whether they prepare or set copy, contract the disease, and suffer from it more or less as their mental system responds to or resists it. They are behind the scenes. They know the golden goblets the public admire are only colored glass; that the crimson glory of the tableaux is but a flash of red fire; that the mounting fellow who is lavish of his dukedom is in arrears for morning cocktail. Life is unidealized on the outset. It is stripped of its illusions; and fine names are but echoes of emptiness.—Why expect them to admire? Why ask them to be ambitious; why look for enthusiasm in them?

The printer understands how reputations are made. He knows that they are not blown forth from the trump of him who seeks reputation by performing solos, and gets it thereby. He is aware that, while genius starves, impudence fattens; that while wisdom hides in a garret, flippancy draws on the pave; while inspirations pince, management flushes with health. He sees that the editorial language of the statesman or artist is in the statesman or artist's own hand; that honors are easy to the man who has the effrontery to ask, and not to be denied. No marvel he believes all achievement unworthy, all success a sort of cheat, all persons of eminence those who have not yet been found out."

In none of the notices of the Siamese Twins that we have seen has mention been made of the famous Scotch double man, of whom the following curious account is given in the "Rerum Scoticarum Historia;" "During the reign of James the Third of Scotland, and at his court, there lived a man, double above the waist, single below that region. The King caused him to be carefully brought up. He rapidly acquired a knowledge of music. The two heads learned several languages; they debated together, and the two upper halves occasionally fought. They lived generally, however, in the greatest harmony. When the lower part of the body was tickled the two individuals felt it together; but when, on the other hand, one of the upper individuals was touched, he alone felt the effect. This monstrous being died at the age of twenty-eight years. One of the bodies died several days before the other."

Money is so scarce in Minnesota that traders and banks are issuing shinplasters.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COG-WHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Stiles Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14. Extra Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1869

MORE ABOUT CASWELL.

We have given some account of the Caswell Bar, it is proper we should say some thing of the people, the crops and the taxes.

The people of Caswell have excellent county officers; Henry Brandon is Clerk, Jesse Griffith, Sheriff. The Commissioners are, Dr. Roan, Hon. Giles Mebane, Tucker Norfleet, Yancy Jones and Morris Mason. They have no negro jurors.

The Judge, in his charge to the Grand Jury, congratulated the people upon the good order which prevailed in Caswell.

Chicken Stephens is greatly exercised about deposing the county officers. The drunken Attorney General, Coleman brought suit, at the instance of the Governor, to depose them. The action was not properly brought and was dismissed. A second suit was commenced against them and shared the fate of the first.

Stephens was closeted on Tuesday night with Bulla, the Solicitor; on Wednesday the Grand Jury were before the Court for special instructions. We learn the Judge charged the Jury upon the subject of persons holding office contrary to law; this was intended for the Sheriff and Commissioners. He charged them that Bulla was their counsellor and adviser, and they should take the law from him. He charged, also, that the Grand Jury were not to take into consideration the character of a witness testifying before them. This instruction was regarded by some as preparing the way for such men as Stephens to go before the Grand Jury.

The Judge is the guest of Stephens during the term, or he may be boarding out that bond spoken of by John Lawson, when he was "interviewed."

Rev. Cook, (a colored man from another county,) and Chicken Stephens; are the Magistrates for Yanceyville. Cook was beaten in the late election; by the ruling of his friend, Judge Tourgee, he holds over and, though beaten by the people, is exercising the functions of Magistrate. When Stephens was beaten he contested the election and alleged that he received more legal votes than his competitor. He appealed to Tourgee, who ordered all the evidence and records of the election to be sent to him, which was done by Dr. Roan, the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners. The Chairman stated that, after the election, information reached the Commissioners that the persons who held the election had not been sworn. This fact, not made upon oath by Dr. Roan, was sufficient. The Judge never heard from the Magistrates who were elected by the people, but he declared the election void, and that Cook and Stephens, the old Magistrates, held over! Accordingly they are now the acting Magistrates against the wish, will and vote of the people.

The crop in Caswell is a failure. We saw many worming tobacco who should have been cutting it. The corn, except in the low grounds, was a failure also, and the recent freshets had destroyed much that grew upon the rivers and creeks.

The taxes were much complained of, though it was only $2 on the poll and $1,08 on the $100 of property.

We told the people what was going on in Pitt and Rockingham, and how much better off they were than the people of these and other counties. We talked of agriculture, taxes and the great swindling that was going on among the government and State officials.

Cary, the colored "archives of gravity" man, is expected to be Postmaster at Yanceyville. We suppose the Governor recommended him.

Judge Tourgee sent an order to the Sheriff of Person, directing him to notify the witnesses and parties to suits not to attend the first week of the term of Person Court. The Judge wishes to go to the State Fair; at all events, it was kind in him to give the notice of no Court, and not to have the people looking for him, as they did in Chatham and Orange, three or four days.

Surely better days, better crops and better Judges are coming to the good people of Caswell.

GOVERNOR HOLDEN'S ORDER.

When "our cussing beloved" departed some weeks ago for New York, he left peremptory orders with his Private Secretary, Wm. R. Richardson, (the man who did not go, but sent a substitute in the army, and presented General Robert Vance with a war charger,)that if "Hon." A. H. Galloway, the Grant elector and leader of the Senate, should enter the Executive office to kick him out.

Galloway's offence is this and nothing more, so far as we have heard: On one occasion at Pepper's drinking saloon, Galloway was invited by a friend of the Governor to drink. When all glasses were filled to the brim, Governor Holden's health was proposed. Galloway set his glass upon the counter, and refused to drink the health of the King of the Leagues. And for this slight offence the colored Elector whom the whole people of the United States, delighted to honor, is to be kicked out of the Capitol.

Nothing surpasses the insolence of this order, except that other order to the Librarian when Provisional Governor, forbidding a citizen to enter the State Library.

SEEKING INFORMATION.

The Grand Inquest for Wake county came into Court on Saturday morning for the purpose of obtaining from his Honor, Judge Watts, information on two questions.

1st. "Is a member of the Board of County Commissioners indictable for charging mileage, in attending the meetings of the Board, for 15 or 16 miles, when his business is in the city, and he neither comes the distance charged to attend the meeting nor travels it in returning after the meeting of the Board?"

2nd. "Is the N. C. Real and Personal Estate Agency, indictable under the Statute against lotteries, for selling tickets for drawings, for the sale of property?"

We write from memory and pretend only to give the substance of the interrogatories, as we understood them.

His Honor answered the last interrogatory first; stating that as the charter of the Company gave them the privilege of disposing of property by this method, and repealed all laws and clauses of laws in conflict therewith, he could not see that the Company had violated any law, in the sale of tickets; that the constitutionality of the act granting the charter, was not in question, and therefore, on that point, he did not feel called upon to render an opinion.

In regard to the first inquiry, His Honor stated that the Board of Commissioners constituted a Court taking the place, in many instances of the Old County Courts; that the act of Assembly had established no definite per diem or mileage for these Boards, and that it was a matter they were left to settle for themselves; that any member of the Board might be impeached for receiving more mileage than the amount he was entitled to by the assessment established by the Board.

The above is, in substance, what we understood to be the Judge's answers to the interrogatories. In the answer to the first inquiry, which was given last, we thought His Honor did not exactly meet the point.—The question was not whether a member of a Board of Commissioners or the whole Board, was amenable for the amount of per diem or mileage they may allow themselves, but whether a member of such Board, who proves his account for an amount above what he is entitled to at the rates adopted, is indictable. If the Board had put the per diem at $50 a day, and mileage at $1 a mile, no member would have been subject to indictment for receiving his pay at these rates, for the law does not limit them, and the rates they adopt is a law of itself; but if a member charges for days he does not attend, or for miles he does not travel, we think he is clearly indictable. His Honor says he is subject to impeachment; we would like to know, under what law; who can impeach, and what tribunal has cognizance of the case under impeachment?

TEXAS POLITICS—RESIGNATION OF GOV. PEASE.

It is alleged that the action of Messrs. Boutwell and Creswell and Gen. Reynolds towards the Hamilton republicans of Texas has produced great indignation through the State. Gov. Pease, Judge Bell, and many other leading republicans will take the stump for Hamilton at once. The following is the Governor's letter of resignation:

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, AUSTIN, Sep. 30.

Brevet Major General J. J. Reynolds, Commanding Fifth Military District—General: The substance of a letter from yourself to President Grant has recently been published in which opinions are expressed concerning the two parties in Texas that call themselves republican which I do not consider warranted by the course that has been pursued by these parties during the progress to reconstruction. This letter endorses General Davis and his followers, who, whatever may be their present profession, have heretofore made the most strenuous efforts to prevent the adoption of any constitution by our late central committee, and to induce Congress to delay the reconstruction of the State.

It also condemns General Hamilton and his supporters, among whom are not less than eight-tenths of the educated republicans of the State, through whose influence a constitution was adopted by the committee that secures to every citizen a perfect equality of civil and political rights.—Since the date of the letter referred to the administration at Washington is reported to have removed from office many of the republicans in Texas who are supporting General Hamilton, and filled their places with supporters of General Davis, and it is understood that the influence and patronage of the military commander of this State and of the administration at Washington are being used in behalf of those republicans who have exerted themselves to delay and defeat the reconstruction of the State, and against those republicans who have in good faith used this influence to carry out its reconstruction strictly in accordance with the laws, who have succeeded in that object so far as the measure has been allowed to progress.

It is well known that I was appointed to the position I occupy without being consulted. In accepting it, I was influenced solely by a desire to aid in carrying out the policy of Congress, which I consider to be the formation of a constitution giving equal civil and political rights to all citizens, and the election of officers who would administer it in good faith to secure that object. I have believed for some time past that the only mode of doing this was by ratifying the new constitution and electing the ticket headed by Gen. Hamilton. Under existing circumstances, I am unwilling to become in any way responsible for the course being pursued by the military commander and the administration at Washington. I therefore respectfully resign the office of Governor of Texas. Very respectfully, your obedient servant. E. M. PEASE.

They have just settled a curious divorce suit in Chicago. The husband, who is rich, has lost his wife for sundry very good but remarkable reasons. After the first few weeks of marriage it became his custom upon the conclusion of a meal to test the contents of a sugar bowl by measuring with his fingers what remained; to carefully estimate the size of the lump of butter unused; to count and number the crusts or pieces of bread uneaten, and, generally, to estimate the remnants of food, and to require that the same be restored to the table at the next meal. The key of the pantry he carried in his pocket. He also tried to starve his wife's child by a former marriage, and used to follow her about the house, and into the back yard, from morning to night, for the purpose of torturing her.

At Mount Ararat, this year, 110,000 Mohamedan pilgrims assembled for the annual journey to Mecca.

THE RECENT GOLD FLURRY.

The gradual developments in regard to the recent gold swindle in New York, by which so much damage to trade was occasioned, and so many failures was produced; is showing up some parties, not hitherto included seriously in the censures of the press and the public. Jas. Fisk, Jr., for several days had to bear the brunt of the storm raised against the manipulators of matters connected with the speculations; and to such extent was the public indignation aroused against him, that it was hinted it would not be safe for him to appear on Broadway.

But Mr. Fisk seems determined not to rest under the burden of imputation laid upon him, but by letters and affiants furnished the New York papers, seems likely to saddle a part at least, of the merits of the transactions which produced the panic, upon other participants. Among these, stands prominently Mr. A. R. Corwin, one of the numerous brothers-in-law of President Grant.

The Sun, in speaking of the President's exculpation of himself from complicity in the movement, says:

"If Gen. Grant could say nothing to free Mr. Corbin from the imputations and suspicions which Mr. Fisk's statements have thrown around him, then (the Sun says) his silence was discreet; but if, on the contrary, he had it in his power to exculpate Mr. Corbin, it was a strange omission on his part to say nothing about him. The public will be interested to see how far Mr. Fisk will be able to maintain the positions which he has assumed in this matter. A remarkable statement bearing his signature, and corroborated to a me extent by several affidavits, appears in our columns."

STATEMENT OF JAS. FISK, JR.

ERIE RAILWAY CO. COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, Oct. 4 1869.

To the Editor of the Sun:

DEAR SIR: There seems to be no longer any doubt that Mr. A. R. Corbin, brother in law of President Grant, has stated to your reporter that he did not associate with such men as myself; that I had not been to his house since last summer; that he had never communicated with me respecting gold operations; and that Mr Grant would not hold an interview with any such man as myself.

These statements make it necessary for me to state that Mr. Corbin has constantly associated with me; that I have been in his house repeatedly since last summer; that I visited him on the very afternoon of the day on which he made these statements; and that he spent more than an hour with me in the Erie Railway office on the afternoon of Saturday, September 25, the day after the gold panic. It is further proper for me to say that Mr. Corbin has been a party in interest with us, and others whose names it is not now necessary to mention, in the recent gold speculation, and that he has constantly communicated with me respecting this gold speculation.

In fact, Mr. Corbin was in this speculation long before I was. It had been organized and carried on by him and other gentlemen for some weeks before I knew of its existence. He is entitled to almost the entire credit of originating the grand scheme for advancing the price of gold, and I willingly disclaim in his favor the honor—so kindly imputed to me by the press in general—of having devised this bold and brilliant operation. It was the fruit of Mr. Corbin's own suggestive mind; and long before I knew anything of it, Mr. Corbin's representations concerning the powerful influences which he could bring to bear in favor of the speculation had enlisted in his support other gentlemen of means and capacity; and it is only just to say that Mr. Corbin's assurance on this point were fully carried out up to the 23d of September.

As to the remaining point of Mr. Corbin's statements, it is sufficient to refer to the Associated Press despatch from Washington this morning, by which it will be seen that Gen Grant speaks freely of an interview which he had with me on my boat last summer, and which was exceedingly pleasant on both sides.

I enclose you a few affidavits which will give you further information concerning this matter.

I remain your obedient servant,

JAMES FISK, Jr.

(Here follow affidavits from Charles McIntosh, Superintendent of Erie Ferries, and Frederick W. Banfield—the former alleging that)—

"I met Mr. Abel R. Corbin, brother-in-law of President Grant, at the Erie Railway offices in the Grand Opera House on Friday, September 24, 1869, the same day on which occurred the gold panic in Wall street, this city, and that said A. R. Corbin displayed the most intense excitement and anxiety over the state of the gold market and the operations of Mr. James Fisk, Jr., and Mr. Jay Gould; and he said to me he hoped they would come out all right, as he (Mr. Corbin) 'was deeply interested;' also that he immediately afterward held an interview with Mr. C. W. Pollard, Messrs. Fisk and Gould's agent."

AFFIDAVIT OF CHARLES W. POLLARD.

State of New York, City and County of New York, ss.—C. W. Pollard, being duly sworn, says: I have frequently been the bearer of messages between Mr. James Fisk, Jr., and Mr. Abel R. Corbin, brother-in-law of President Grant, at the residence of the latter, 37 West Twenty-seventh St., in this city. Mr. Corbin called on me at the Erie Building, corner of Twenty-third street and Eighth avenue, on Thursday, the 23rd day of September, 1869, telling me that he came to see how Messrs. Fisk and Gould were getting along. He then asked me to give his regards to both Mr. Fisk and Mr. Gould. He called again on Friday, the following day, at about noon; appeared to be greatly excited, and said he feared we should lose a great deal of money. The following morning, Saturday, September 25th, Mr. Fisk told me to take his carriage and call upon Mr. Corbin, and say to him that he and Mr. Gould would like to see him (Corbin) at their (Fisk and Gould's) office. I called and saw Mr. Corbin. He remarked, upon greeting me, "How does Mr Fisk bear his losses?" and added, "It is terrible for us." He then asked me to bring Mr. Fisk up to his house immediately, as he was indisposed, and did not feel able to go down to his (Fisk's) office. I went after Mr. Fisk, who returned immediately with me to Mr. Corbin's residence, but shortly after came out with Mr. Corbin, who accompanied him to Mr. Fisk's office, where he was closeted with him and Mr. Gould for about two hours. On Monday morning following, Mr. Fisk sent me again to Mr. Corbin's house. Mr. Corbin told me that he and his wife had just returned from Washington, travelling two nights, and that immediately on his return he had sent a message to Mr. Gould at his residence. He was too ill, he said, to go down to the office, and urged me to go and bring Mr. Gould or Mr. Fisk to his house. On the next day, Tuesday, Sept 28, I went again to see Mr. Corbin for Messrs Fisk and Gould. He (Mr. Corbin) said his wife was very ill, and requested me to make an appointment for Mr. Fisk. The latter was so much engaged that he could not go until Thursday, September 30.

C. W. POLLARD.

Sworn to, 4th day of October, 1869, before me.

MORTIMER SMITH, Notary Public, N. Y.

It may be added here that Fisk, Jr., telegraphed to a friend in Washington, Monday, that President Grant first introduced the subject of finance in the conversation on board the steamboat spoken of by the Associated Press correspondent.

The World moralizes on the spectacle of a President of the United States holding any conversation at all, with anybody, on such a subject. The editor says:

"It simply transcends the human imagination to imagine a speculator of 1790 making such an overture to President Washington, or even a speculator of 1857 making such an overture to Buchanan. No man would have had the hardihood, we may safely say, to ask such a favor of either of Grant's predecessors. And if any man had presumed to make such a proposal to any of them, we know how it would have been received. That President Grant condescended, as he admits he did, to entertain Mr. Fisk's question, showed that the latter knew his man, and that the people who chose him for President did not.—Here is Cæsar's wife so far from being above suspicion that she treats an indecent proposition as a matter quite of course, and, so far as appears, only holds back for a bid."

Notwithstanding all declarations to the contrary it is evident that many of the colored population aspire to social equality with the whites. As proof, we will relate an incident that transpired last week:

A young negro named Mitchell teaches school about five miles from this place. Mitchell becoming more than usually presumptuous even for young Africa, concludes he will assert claims of equality with some of his caucasian neighbors; so he goes over to a Mr. Larkin Overby's in the absence of that gentleman and asks Mrs. Overby to send her two nices, large girls nearly grown, to school to him. The lady very indignant at having so audacious a request made of her, ordered the impertinent scoundrel to leave the premises or if he did not immediately depart, she would shoot him. He left, came up to town, and representing that threats had been made against his life by Mrs. Overby, got a warrant issued by Allen Eaton (col.) J. P., and had the lady brought before the negro justice, when she was bound over for her appearance at next term of Superior Court. As soon as the case was dismissed, she procured a warrant and brought the black miscreant before Justice Parham and had him bound over to keep the peace. This is reconstruction with a vengeance.—Hamlet-son Index.

TEN YEARS AGO.—The Cleveland Plaindealer says: About ten years ago, Daniel Sickles committed a cowardly murder in the streets of Washington. Now he represents the United States at the Court of Spain.

Less than ten years ago, Governor Joe Brown, of Georgia, was the leader of the secession movement, and afterward the originator, builder and manager of the Andersonville prison pen, in which so many thousand of Union soldiers died.—Now Brown is the leader of the jacobin party in Georgia.

Considerably less than then years ago, General Longstreet was at the head of a rebel army, dealing death and destruction to Union soldiers. Now he is an appointee of Grant to a lucrative position in New Orleans.

Ten years ago, Ben Butler, at the Charleston Convention, voted fifty-three times for Jeff. Davis as a candidate for President, and was at that time a poor man. Now he is the head and front—the very quintessence of jacobinism—and worth his millions of dollars.

Ten years ago, U. S. Grant was a penniless pensioner on the bounty of the Dent family. Now he is President of the United States, and the entire Dent family are pensioners on the Government.

Ten years ago the national debt was about sixty millions of dollars. Now it is nearly thirty thousand millions.

Ten years ago, not a national tax-gatherer was to be seen or heard of in this broad land. Now they are as numerous as lice on a cabbage leaf.

These are curious illustrations of the changes wrought by time.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

NEW ADS.—We would direct attention to the card of Messrs. Jno. B. Neal & Co., Cotton Factors, Norfolk, Va.

Also, to the advertisement of houses for rent, for next year, in the City of Raleigh.

SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY.—Brantley and Watkins, who were convicted at the Spring term of Wake Superior Court of larceny, in robbing the premises of Mr. Crudup of this county, in connection with other parties not known, and who appealed to the Supreme Court, where the judgment of the Superior Court was affirmed, were, on Saturday, brought up for sentence, and each sentenced to five years at hard labor in the State Penitentiary. This is the longest term allotted to any convict, at the present term of the Court.

TRIAL OF ALLMAN.—Nathan Allman was put on his trial on Saturday for the murder of Norfleet Lassiter, in this, Wake, county, in June last. But few witnesses were examined, and the argument of Counsel, (the Solicitor for the State, and Messrs. Fowle and Badger for the defence) closed, and the case given to the Jury, a little after sunset. Up to the time of closing our paper on Saturday night, (11 o'clock,) the Jury had not agreed on a verdict.

A PRETTY FRONT.—Mr. Briggs, the architect, has fitted the capstone to the new front of the State National Bank building, adjoining Tucker Hall, and a most splendid appearance it makes. The cornice, window frames, &c., are of iron, but painted white, which presents a beautiful contrast to the front wall. Workmen are busily engaged on the joinery inside, and, not long hence, the building will be ready for occupancy, and will be one of the most beautiful in the city.

F. OF T.—At the Grand Council, Friends of Temperance, which met in Goldsboro', last week, twenty-six Councils were represented. A large amount of business was disposed of before the adjournment on Friday evening.

TURTLE SOUP will be served up at the Restaurant of Pepper and O'Connor, to day at 11 o'clock. Families supplied by leaving their orders.

Suppers of Game, Fish, or Sora supplied. And Oysters, raw, stewed, scalloped or fried, At the earliest notice.

STORE ROBBED.—Mr. Julius P. Timberlake, who keeps a store in Franklin county, on the road from Raleigh to Louisburg, had his store broken into and robbed on the night of the 5th inst., the rogue taking some $60 or $70 in money, and a few articles of ready made clothing. This robbery may be connected with the fact of a negro boy, mentioned by us a few days ago, having a large sum of money in his possession, and who was reported to be arrested in Salisbury.

BOOKS NOTICES.

THE WOMAN IN WHITE. By Wilkie Collins, Author of "the Queen of Hearts," "Antonina," &c., &c. Illustrated by John McLean. $2.00.

Of all the living writers of English fiction no one better understands the art of storytelling than Wilkie Collins. He has a faculty of coloring the mystery of a plot, exciting terror, pity, curiosity, and other passions, such as belong to few if any of his confreres, however much they may excel him in other respects. His style, too, is singularly appropriate—less forced and artificial than the average modern novelists.

PICCIOLA—THE PRISONER OF PENESTRELLA OR CAPTIVITY, CAPTIVE. By X. B. Saintine. Translated from the French. 1 vol. Illustrated. Price $1.50.

This book is a gem of its kind—a beautiful conceit—beautifully unfolded and applied. We cannot pretend to convey (unless indeed we copied a large part of the story itself) the beauty of description, the tender vein of pure morality, and the touching incidents which give a peculiar charm to this work. A thousand Editions of Picciola would not be too many for its merits. Those who rely on works of fiction for intellectual food will not often find the pure in language and the beautiful in moral as in Picciola.

HOME INFLUENCE.—A Tale for Mothers and Daughters. By Grace Aguilar, 12mo, Muslin, $1.50.

A beautiful story presenting a lovely, quiet picture of home feelings and manners toned down to a deep, tender sweetness, peculiarly fitted to the fireside of the domestic circle. The book is full of natural purity, scenes of every-day life, and feelings of real every-day people.

THE MOTHER'S RECOMPENSE.—A sequel to "Home Influence." By Grace Aguilar. 1 vol. Price $1.50.

"Home Influence" is one of the most chaste and beautiful works of fiction in the English language—a work of surpassing interest, and inculcating sentiments of the purest morality. The sequel traces the effect of home influence over those whom the previous volume had introduced to the reader. It is distinguished by the same simple and beautiful style, and the same tone of pure morality which characterizes "Home Influence."

All of the above books for sale at the N. C. Bookstore, Jas. H. Ennis, Agent.

Watermelons have disappeared from our market; the rabbit crop will soon be in.

A swindler passing under the name of Robt. Haywood, was arrested on Friday last at Wilmington.

A colored woman at Newport, N. C., recently gave birth to three children.

Mr. Zemaniah Oglesby, one of the oldest citizens of Carteret county, died on Friday, the 8th inst.

THE CENTRAL BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

This religious body, composed of fourteen Baptist Churches in Wake, Franklin and Granville, met with the Church at Rogers Cross Roads, some ten miles Northeast of Raleigh, on Thursday the 7th inst., at 11, A. M. The opening sermon was preached by Dr. Wingate, President of Wake Forest College, from John 16th, and 7th. "It is expedient for you that I go away, for if I go not away the comforter will not come unto you." The discourse was original and profound and embraced the following points: The Personality of the Holy Spirit, while a most important doctrine is easily ignored, and if once lost sight of is difficult to be restored to recognition, and thus, for the following reasons: First, His work is mysterious. Second, He teaches not himself, but the things of Christ; and third, this doctrine is most offensive to the legal, self-righteous spirit of man. This doctrine, nevertheless, is necessary to be maintained, for our religion is essentially supernatural.

But the text confines us to the enquiry, why it was expedient for Christ to go away? 1st. Christ must go away, must die to make an atonement, and rise again, or the Comforter will not come. He must finish his work that the Comforter may bear all the facts, may be able to exhibit the whole system of the gospel. But had not the Comforter already come? No, not in His abundance clearness and power.

But why should Christ go away and the Comforter come? The spirit is the superior teacher. The spirit prepares the heart, 1st., to see the truth, 2nd, to love the truth, and 3rd, He teaches the things of Christ and nothing of himself. 4th. He vitalizes all means. 5th. Can be everywhere present which Christ could not be in the flesh, and 6th, can always abide with us, which Christ could not in the flesh.

What wondrous power the Church possesses in the gift of the Holy Spirit!

After the sermon an intermission of an hour was given, when the letters from the Churches were read, and the old officers were re-elected, viz: N. E. Cannady, of Granville, President; B. W. Justice, of Wake, Secretary, and L. H. Dunn, of Wake, Treasurer.

The statistics of the Churches gave the following results:

Baptized during the year,	57
Present membership,	2,210
Contributions to benevolent objects, irrespective of salaries of Pastors,	$6,576.48

The President then announced the following persons as charmen after the usual committees:

State Missions—Dr. W. W. Wingate.
Education—Dr. T. H. Pritchard.
Periodicals—Rev. A. F. Purifoy.
Foreign Missions—Rev. W. T. Brooks.
Religious condition of the Churches—D. W. Royall.

Visiting brethren were then invited to seats, when Rev. W. B. Harrell, Dr. H. B. Marley and W. H. Avera, reported as messengers from the Raleigh Association.

Reports from messengers to other similar bodies being called for, Capt. B. W. Justice, and Dr. Wingate who had visited the Western Convention, which met in Buncombe, the Roan Mountain Association, which met in Mitchell County, and the Salem Association which held its session in Buncombe, made graphic and most interesting statements of what they had heard and seen among the Baptists of the mountains. They said, among other things, that the Western Convention represented 30,000 Baptists West of the Blue Ridge, while the Eastern Convention represented 50,000 on this side of the mountains. The number of communicants of the Baptist churches of the State according to their estimate is at least 70,000.

After devotional exercises the Association adjourned till 10 A. M. Friday.

MCMANNEN'S SMUT MACHINE.—We have omitted to notice and call attention to the advertisement of McMannen's Smut Machine, inserted some days since. This invention has been in use for twenty-seven years, and has not been supplanted by any other machine, an evidence of its superior adaptability to the purpose intended. To the use of this machine are manufacturers of flour in North Carolina, and other Southern States, indebted in a great degree for the higher price which Southern flour bears in the Northern markets, over Northern and Western brands. Mr. McMannen warrants the machines for five years; a fact which was omitted to be stated in the advertisement, and which we mention at his request.

BIG POTATOES.—We saw at the store of W. H. Jones & Co., on Saturday, some of the largest Irish potatoes we ever beheld outside of Ireland. Two of them weighed one pound and a half each. They are of the peach blow species, and of symmetrical form. We are sorry to say, however, they were not raised on the soil of our State.

SERIOUS DIFFICULTY AT GASTON.—A difficulty occurred at South Gaston on Saturday evening last resulting in the shooting of one of the parties. Mr. Joseph Shaw, accompanied by one or two others, entered the store of John H. Everett, called for liquor and drank it, after which Shaw, being under the influence of liquor already, commenced bantering some one for a fight. As is usual in such cases he was willing to fight any one and commenced abusing Mr. Everett, the storekeeper. His friends carried him from the house, but he returned again with threats. Upon entering he was warned not to do so by Everett, and advancing heedless of the warning, Everett raised a shot gun and shot Shaw in the leg.—Roanoke News.

NOT SO SERIOUSLY DAMAGED.—We are glad to learn that the late freshet in the Roanoke did not do as much damage as was at first thought would be done to the crops along its course, the water remaining up not sufficiently long. Some of the corn flats were, however, damaged to a certain extent.—Roanoke News.

SKIFF AND GAYLORD'S MINSTRELS.—The Richmond Evening Times in speaking of this company says:

"This famous and well known troupe of star performers, opened to an overflowing house. This troupe is such a favorite here that comment is almost useless. The parlour entertainment was presented in quite a satisfactory manner. Low Gaylord is truly a king of comicalities, and Harry Talbot, the old Richmond favorite, took the audience by storm, Sig. Gustave Bidaux rendered a beautiful ballad, entitled, "Come sit by my side little darling." He has a fine Baritone voice and is a great favorite here. Sam Gardner is a good enterlocutor and sang "Dublin Bay" in a style that cannot be excelled. Joe Mairs is the best female impersonator that has ever visited this city. Johnny Reese sang a comic song entitled "Up in a Back Room or the Troubles of a Broken Hearted Husband;" he took three encores and well he deserved them. A very amusing act entitled "The Prodigy Infant," introducing Harry Talbot and Sam Gardner; The former giving some good imitations of several animals, especially the drawing of a glass of soda water—The triple Clog, by Styles, Phelps and Armstrong, was excellent, the grand Opera Scene from "True bad door," was good; Joe Mairs giving some fine operatic selections. Master Hunter is a good song and dance boy for one so young. Several other new acts were presented and well rendered. The performance concludes with Prof. Shaffners Panithiopticonics, which was well worth the price of admission; we cannot explain the beauty of these Views; they must be seen to be believed.

The cotton gin, together with five bales of cotton, belonging to Mr. Chas. Malloy, about four miles from Shoe Heel, in Robeson County, was burned last week.

There have been no important disclosures made regarding the case of the Steamship "Cuba" now at Wilmington.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes: and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS. H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

It gives a soft, satin-like texture to the Complexion, removes Roughness, Redness, Blotches, Sunburn, Tan, &c., and adds a tinge of Pearly Bloom to the plainest features. It brings the Bloom of Youth to the fading cheek and changes the rustic Country Girl into a Fashionable City Belle.

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, some 91 one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 564 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13 287 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

SCHOOL BOOKS.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF

TEXT-BOOKS

FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

Office Publishers' Sup't of Introduction,

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 27, 1869.

A DEPOSITORY has been established at Raleigh, in charge of Mr. Alfred Williams, for the following books, which were adopted Aug. 9th, 1869, by the State Board of North Carolina for uniform use in the Public Schools:

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & MCNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES.
MONTEITH'S YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
SPENCERIAN SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October, 1869. The maps, &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public Schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

The books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public Schools in the State.

Similar terms will be made accessible to private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the state contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,

Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with

C. W. LAMBETH,

Agent for the Publishers

and Sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School Snow Hill, N. C.:

SNOW HILL, N. C.

"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALBERT SIMMONS, D. D., Rector of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable. ALBERT SIMMONS.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin. Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.:

GOLDSBORO', N. C.

I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Ganot in particular. J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.

"The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.

"We shall introduce Davies' Bourdon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.:

DURHAM, N. C.

I design introducing the present session McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition. M. CLOSS.

From M. L. LETTLE, Esq., Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton, N. C.:

NEWTON, N. C.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work. M. L. LETTLE,

Prin Pleasant Hill Seminary.

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Auburn Academy N. C.:

AUBURN, N. C.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.

STINCEON IVEY.

Prof. WM. A. GRAHAM, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:

"The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. E. DUGGER, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.

WARRENTON N. C.

"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.

I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation. J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward in its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.

MT. PLEASANT, N. C.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purposes.

With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.

In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Ganot, with much acceptance. G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School, N. C.

WILSON, N. C.

I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the "National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.

I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow. I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently exhaustive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——, which stands next best on the list.

McNally's, the fifth book of the course, is decidedly the chef d'œuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit. J. H. FOY

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1868.

We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.

Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the Southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder. National Elementary Speller. The National First 2nd 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the states.

From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1868.

—NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.

From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1868.

NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.

From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1868.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

Planters desiring Gins would do well to buy one of Gullett's, as each one is guaranteed, and if it does not have the advantages, over other Gins, named in this advertisement, after fair trial, it will be no sale.
